RECEPTION TO BISHOP LLOYD.

A reception was tendered the Right Reverend Arthur Selden Lloyd, D. D., bishop coadjutor of Virginia, by the men of Christ Church in their parish hall last night, to which the men of the other two churches of Alexandria, the Braddock Heights Mission and St. John's West End, were invited. The guests numbering about 150 including the rectors and vestries of Grace and St. Paul's, and professors from the Theological Seminary, were presented to the bishop by Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church. After the presentations the choir of Christ Church, composed of Mrs. Matthew W. O'Brien, Mr. Kenneth Ogden, and Mr. George H. Evans, with Mrs. Charles G. Lennon as accompanist, rendered especially choice selections which added much to the enjoyment of those present. Mrs. Thomas Halliack took the place of Mrs. E. P. Downing, who was unable to be present on account of illness. These were followed by a few words of greeting from Rev. Mr. Morton, to which the bishop responded in his usually happy vein. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Parish Guild, who also had attractively decorated the rooms. The hope was expressed that this was but the forerunner of meetings of a similar character to be held from time to time by the men of the three Episcopal churches, and which tend towards that unity which seems to be the spirit of the times. In fact, the bishop expressed the hope that early in the fall he might have an opportunity to present, to those present and all others who for one reason or another were unable to be present, a subject which he has had in mind for some time, but which, on account of the pressure of diocesan business or other reasons, he has not had an opportunity to do.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Adjutant General Sale has issued the following order:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,
Adjutant General's Office,
Richmond, April 20, 1910

Special orders No. 25.

The resignation of Second Lieutenant T. B. Cochran, quartermaster and commissary, second battalion First Infantry, having been tendered the governor and commander-in-chief, is accepted to take effect from this date.

By order of Wm. Hodges Mann, governor and commander-in-chief.

W. W. SALE,
Adjutant General.

As heretofore stated, Lieut. Cochran resigned on account of stress of professional duties. He has had a long service with the Virginia militia.

CASE DISMISSED.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of a white boy charged with disorderly conduct toward a woman. There were a number of witnesses from rival families who were parties to a quarrel between neighbors. The complainant in her statement among other things said one of neighbors placed her thumb on her nose and wriggled her fingers at her. This act caused the complainant to use harsh language. Justice Oatton listened to the story up to this stage when he ordered the plaintiff, defendant, witnesses and spectators to retire from the court.

FURNERAL.

The funeral of the late John W. Sutherland, who died in Washington on Tuesday, took place in that city this afternoon. The remains were subsequently brought to this city and interred in Bethel cemetery. The deceased was 64 years old. He was a native of Virginia and served in the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment, of the Confederate army throughout the civil war, taking part in every engagement from Ball Run to Appomattox. He went to Washington from Alexandria twelve years ago, and secured an appointment in the navy yard. The funeral was attended by R. E. Lee Camp, of which the deceased was a member.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Oatton presiding]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Jerry Sims, colored, charged with assaulting Maggie Clark, was dismissed, the complainant failing to appear, and a warrant will be issued for her arrest.

Nathan Phillips, colored, charged with stealing a rug, was sent to jail for three months.

A boy, charged with disorderly conduct toward a woman, was dismissed.

MASONIC.

A delegation of Baltimore Masons visited Alexandria-Washington Lodge, of this city, last night, to make arrangements for a visitation of about 150 Maryland Masons to this city during the latter part of May. The Marylanders will visit Mount Vernon and at night will witness the conferring of degrees by the Grand Master Shrook of Maryland, who accompanied the visitors.

On May 12 the Masonic Association of the District of Columbia, will pay a visit to Alexandria-Washington Lodge.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Up to noon today 51 liquor licenses had been granted and the time for securing licenses from the Corporation Court will expire tomorrow. Last year 60 such licenses were issued. It is known that at least two liquor dealers will not apply for licenses this year.

The rummage sale being conducted at 508 King street will continue tomorrow and tomorrow night.

EARNST AND ELOQUENT WORDS.

Last night a large and deeply interested audience listened to Rev. E. T. Wellford as he preached at the Second Presbyterian Church on the text, "What must I do to be saved?" He began by stating that men are not here on probation; that Adam was on probation and he fell. We are here as lost men. It is not a question whether man may some day accept Christ and prevent being lost—man is lost already. Jesus Christ came to seek and save that which was lost. To be saved one must believe that Jesus Christ died in his place, and made satisfaction for the broken law. When one believes, then there opens before him his own sinfulness and he is led to repentance. Repentance involves several things: Seeing sin in all of its hideousness; seeing Jesus Christ willing and glad to pardon, grief and hatred of sin; turning from sin unto God with full purpose of heart and endeavor after new obedience. When the call came for all who had believed on Jesus Christ and confessed him to stand a large part of the congregation arose. When the invitation was given for all who would confess Jesus Christ to come forward four young ladies gave their lives to Christ.

Before the sermon Mrs. Sevier, of Tennessee, sang most beautifully "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me."

This afternoon and tonight services will be held. No service will be held Saturday afternoon, but a special service of song and prayer with a message through Dr. Wellford on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Preparations are being made for the great mass meeting of men on Sunday afternoon.

DECLARED COMPANY BLAMELESS.

The coroner's jury which met on Wednesday afternoon to investigate the circumstances in connection with the killing of the unknown colored man by a north bound electric train near Rosemont station, on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway re-assembled again this morning at W. Deane & Son's undertaking parlors. Dr. Moore, the coroner, conducted the investigation, and the jury was composed of Messrs. August Osbert (foreman), F. Kaus, Thos. L. Orris, Thomas A. Fisher, Albert Dineen and R. S. Barrett.

Five witnesses were examined Wednesday afternoon and several others testified this morning, but no additional facts were brought out. The unfortunate man had been seen Tuesday afternoon in the vicinity of Spring Park. He was at that time under the influence of liquor, so much so that he was unable to take care of himself and had been placed alongside of a fence by passers-by. He was also seen later staggering close to the railway track.

The jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, after examining all the witnesses, find that the said unknown person came to his death April 27, 1910, near Rosemont station, on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, by being struck by a north bound train, and as a result of injuries received died at the Alexandria Hospital at 5 a. m. April 27, and we, the jury, exonerate said company and employees from all blame."

THE WEIGHT OF BREAD.

An old law that requires bread to be sold in one, two, four and eight pound loaves was some months ago declared by Justice Oatton to be unreasonably restrictive and the case of a dealer who was charged with violating the law was dismissed. The mayor at the time sent Justice Oatton's decision to the City Council and asked that that body take action in the matter. Recently an ordinance was introduced in Council concerning the matter and was referred to the committee on general laws. That committee met last night and heard argument for and against a resolution to make it obligatory on bakers to give sixteen ounces to each loaf of bread. The bakers contend that if they gave a full pound it would mean that the retail price of bread would be increased 1 cent. The committee is understood not to act favorably on the proposition.

THE CITY JAIL.

A joint meeting of the committees on public property and finance was held last night for the purpose of further considering the proposition for bettering conditions at the city jail. Judge Barley, City Attorney Fisher and other officials, who attended the previous meeting of the committee, were present, as was also Mr. B. F. Smith, of Washington, an experienced jail builder. Judge Barley stated that at times during the past several years he had called the City Council's attention to the matter and now he insisted that something must be done. No definite action was taken, but another meeting will be held on Monday night, which will be attended by Mr. Smith, of Washington, who will at that time exhibit plans by which he will show that by certain alterations suitable quarters can be provided for 85 persons.

ANNUAL INSPECTION.

The members of the police force have for several days been engaged in inspecting yards, courtyards, etc., in all quarters of the city in order that proper sanitary conditions may be brought about before the advent of warm weather. In cases where nuisances exist orders for the abatement of the same have been issued.

OPERA HOUSE.

Undoubtedly the best all around bill as yet offered by the new management of the Opera house was that which opened last night. The four Messers in a comedy sketch and Dale the funny juggler are certainly artists in their line and are calculated to please the most exacting taste. A special matinee is announced for Saturday, with daily matinees including the vaudeville show for five cents all next week.

The Ballinger investigation.

Washington, April 29.—An opportunity to make good his threat of last winter "to kill some snakes" was presented to Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, when he took the witness stand today at the congressional investigation of charges made against him by L. B. Glavis, former field agent of the land office, and Gifford Pinchot, the removed chief forester.

Judge Ballinger briefly outlined his public services in the state of Washington. He laid particular stress, apparently, on the anti-vice crusade he led while mayor of Seattle. "They knew that I intended to enforce the law," he observed in this connection, "and I did." It was only upon repeated solicitation of Senator Piles, of Washington; J. R. Garfield, then secretary of the interior, and President Roosevelt himself that Ballinger said he consented to become commissioner of the general land office.

"I had no interests in Alaska in any land, direct or indirect," the witness said. "And I haven't any today." President Roosevelt greeted Ballinger with characteristic warmth when the latter arrived in Washington to head the land office. "I'm mighty glad to have you here," Ballinger testified he said, "and haven't any excuses to offer for taking you away from Seattle, as you did, can clean up the land office."

A tirade ventres then asked the witness about the conference which Glavis had with him in December, 1907. "Glavis makes the wilful and deliberate misstatement in his testimony here, that we talked over the Alaska cases and that I mentioned several persons," said Ballinger. "That is a wilful and deliberate lie. I did not know those people at that time. We merely talked over the general Alaskan situation and did not go into the different groups, as Glavis says we did."

Explaining the "clear listing" of the Cunningham claims by Ballinger as commissioner in January, 1908, the witness said that he and Chief of the Field Division Schwarz looked over Love's report, made August 2, 1907, and decided that it was favorable to the patenting of the claims, there being no pret in the records.

"I wish to say right here," the witness testified, "that I believe that these claims should have been cleared up on the record in the Department. If I were called upon now to pass on the claims, with the same record before me, I would order that they be cleared."

"I assume all responsibility for clearing these claims. On the evidence then before me, I would do the same thing today. I never had a single one of the Cunningham claimants as clients; I had no interest in the cases in any way." Ballinger was unopposed in his declaration of Glavis and Special Agent Jones.

Rioting Renewed

Shanghai, April 19.—Bleeding similar to that which led to the anti-foreign war in Hunan and the burning of missions has broken out in two of the most populous provinces of China—Kiangsu, on the yellow sea, and Chekiang, on the East China Sea. Disorders are also being renewed in Hunan, according to advices received today.

The Albanian Uprising.

Belgrade, April 29.—The leaders of the Albanian revolt issue a manifesto today in which they demand the withdrawal of all Albanian troops from the Kuchuk Pass and the removal of the Albanian troops from the field, according to dispatches received here. The new edict is expected to double the number within a week. The rebels are in such a commanding position in Kuchuk Pass and their strategic points that the Turkish troops are delaying a further attack awaiting the reinforcements. The troops are under constant harassment from the rebels, who have a big advantage in their familiarity with the topography of the country. Abdul Hamid's old palace guard is said to be the board of strategy that is directing the Albanian revolt.
